Bill of Rights

Promote Fairness and Transparency

The Merchant Bill of Rights was pioneered by Heartland to promote fairness and transparency in credit, debit and prepaid card processing. Proposed as an industry standard, it educates business owners like you about the complexities of card processing and managing the associated costs.

- The right to know the fee for every card transaction—and who's charging it.
- The right to know the markup of Visa®, MasterCard®, Discover Network® and American Express® fee increases.
- The right to know all Visa, MasterCard, Discover Network and American Express fee reductions.
- The right to know all transaction middlemen.
- The right to know all surcharges and bill-backs.
- The right to real-time dedicated service.
- The right to encrypted card numbers and secure transactions.
- The right to real-time fraud and transaction monitoring.
- The right to reasonable equipment costs.
- The right to live customer support 24/7/365.
